

Yip! Yap!

Book

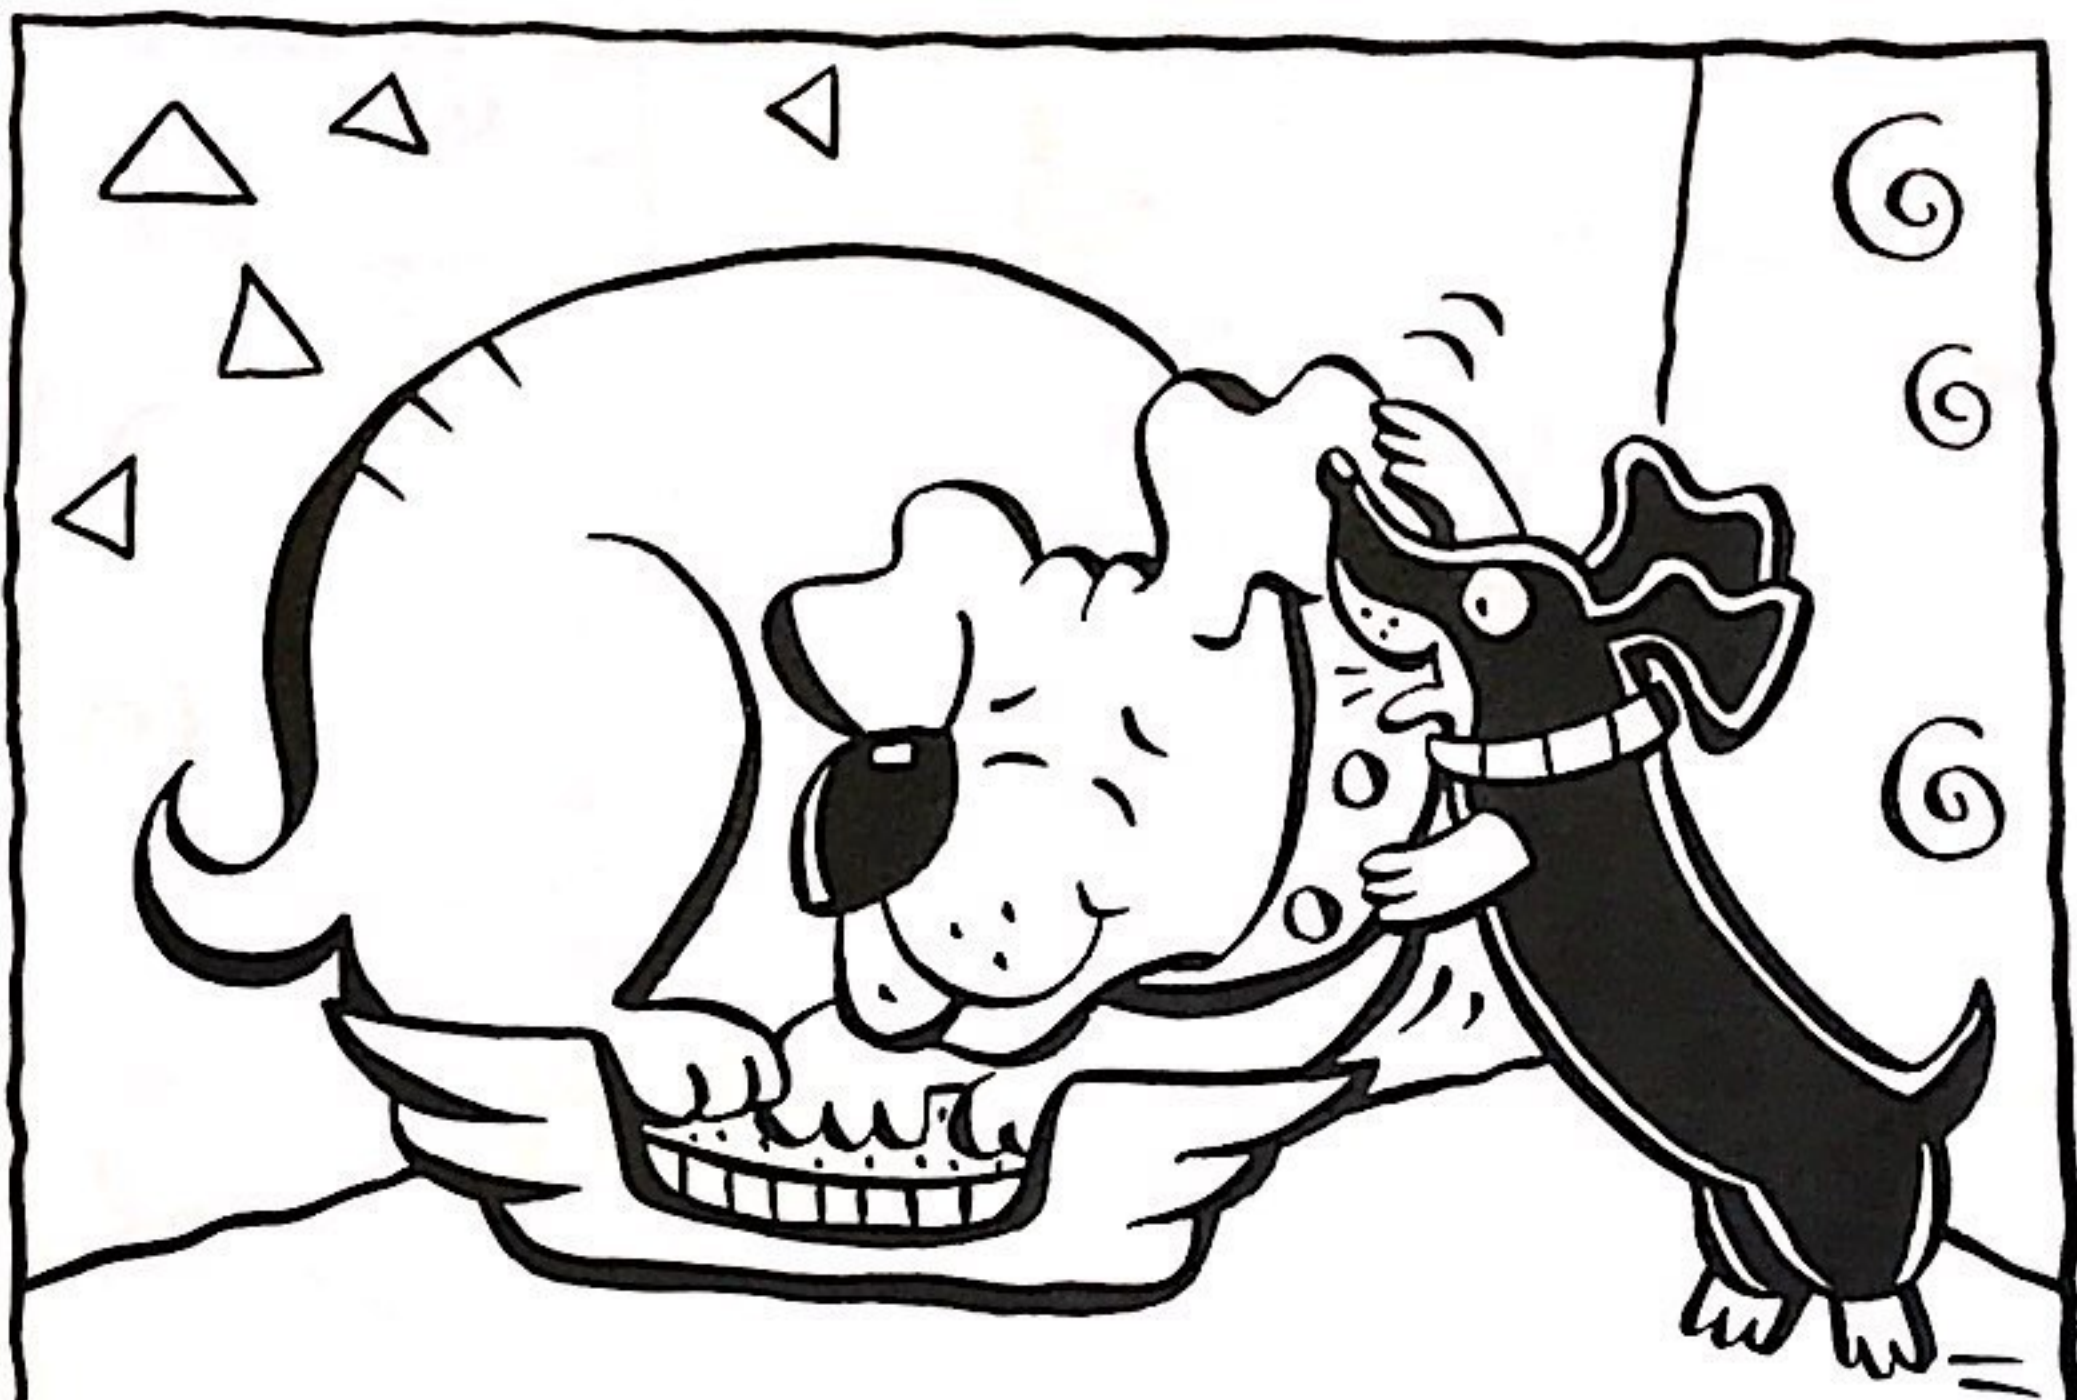

32

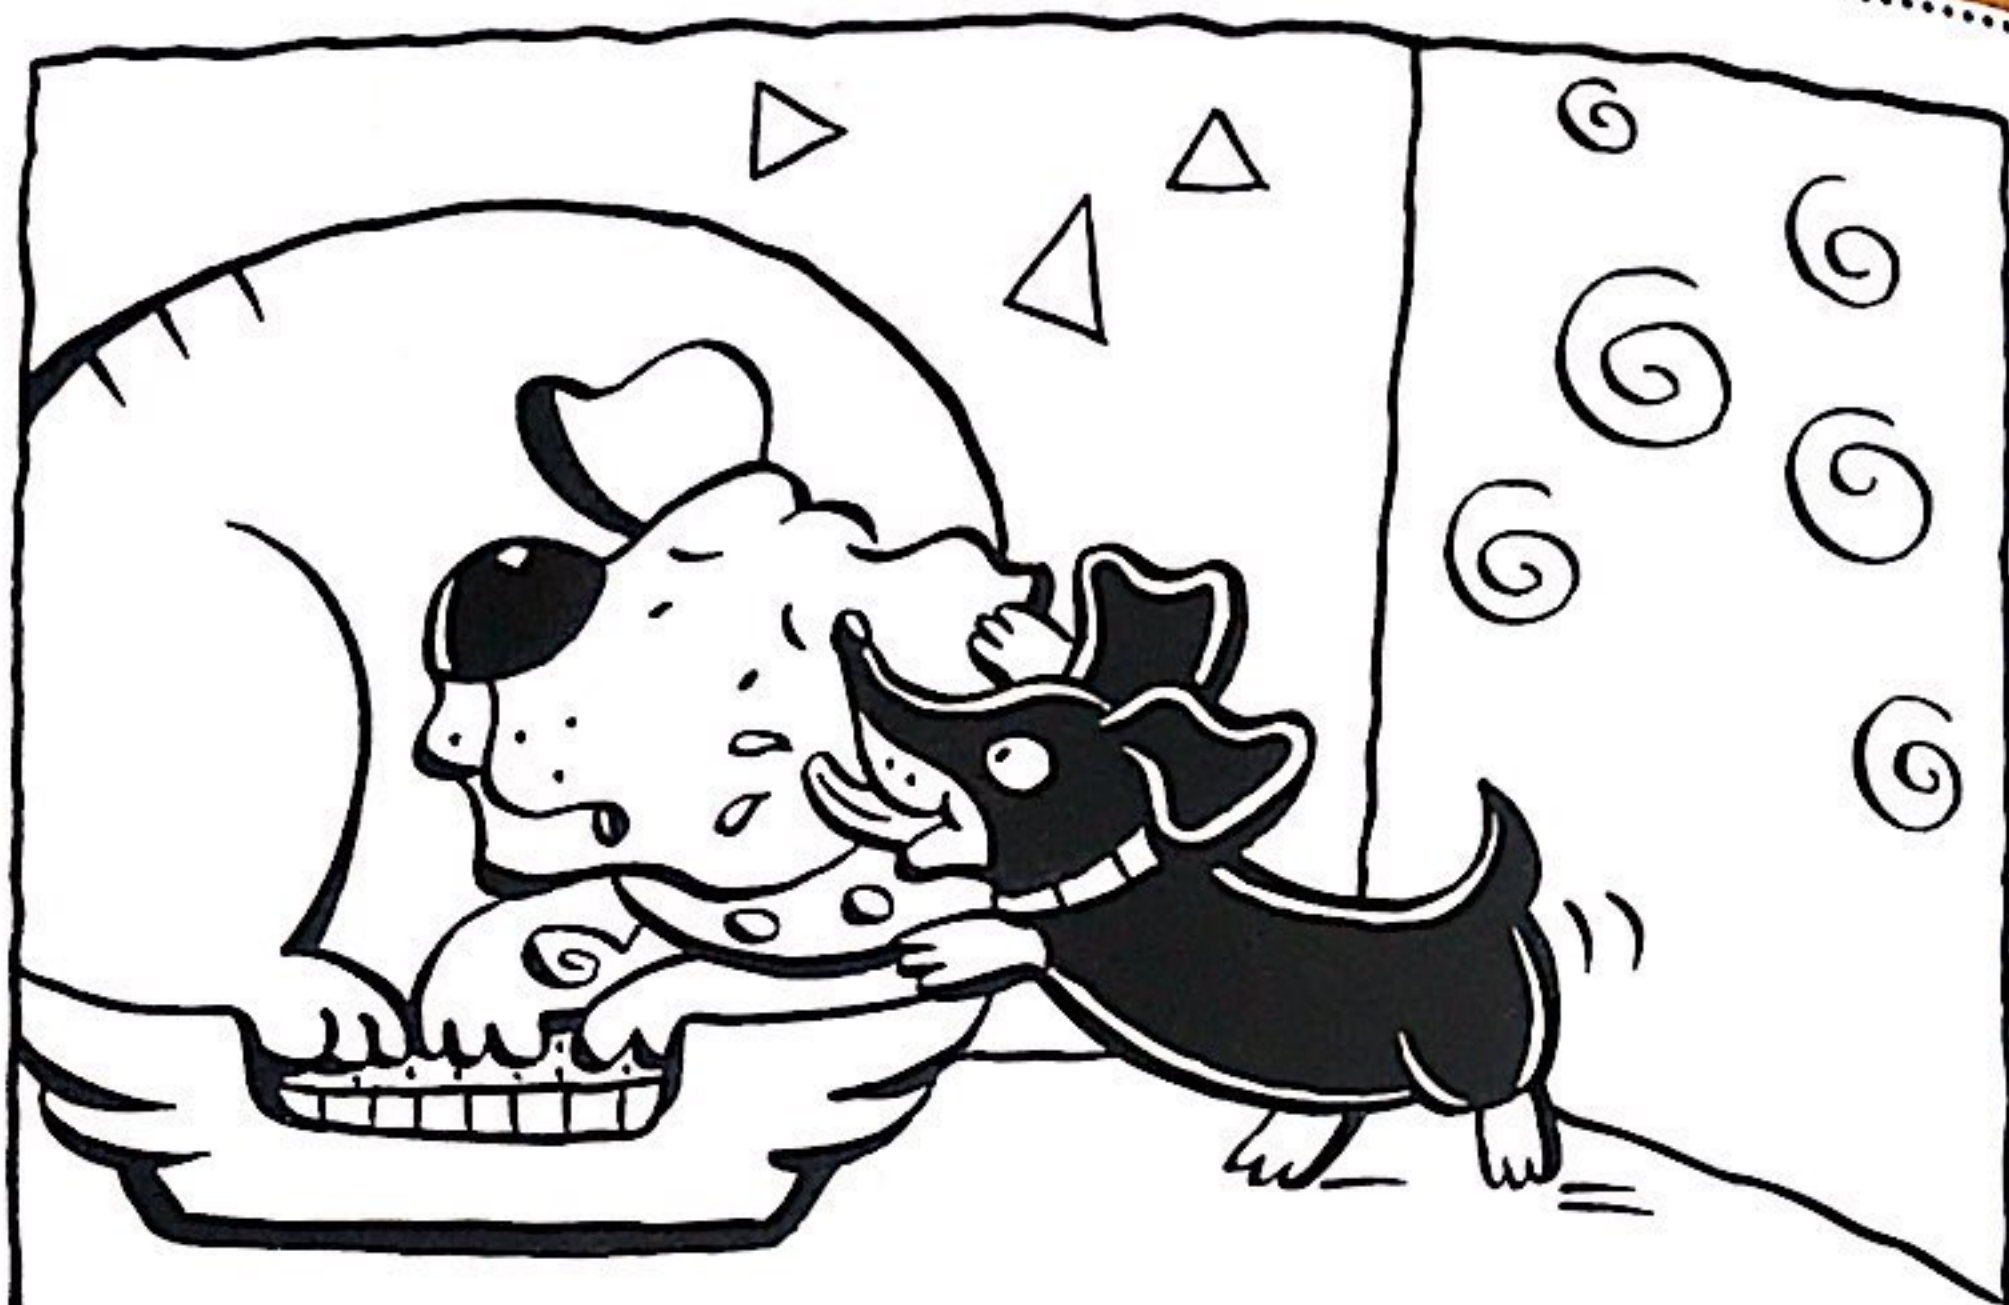

by John Shefelbine
Illustrated by Jackie Snider

The sun is not up yet.
But Zip gets up.
He gets up to see Zap.

Is Zap still in his bed?
Yes, he is.
He is not up yet.

Zip runs up to Zap's bed.
Zip sits and yaps at Zap.
Then he licks Zap.

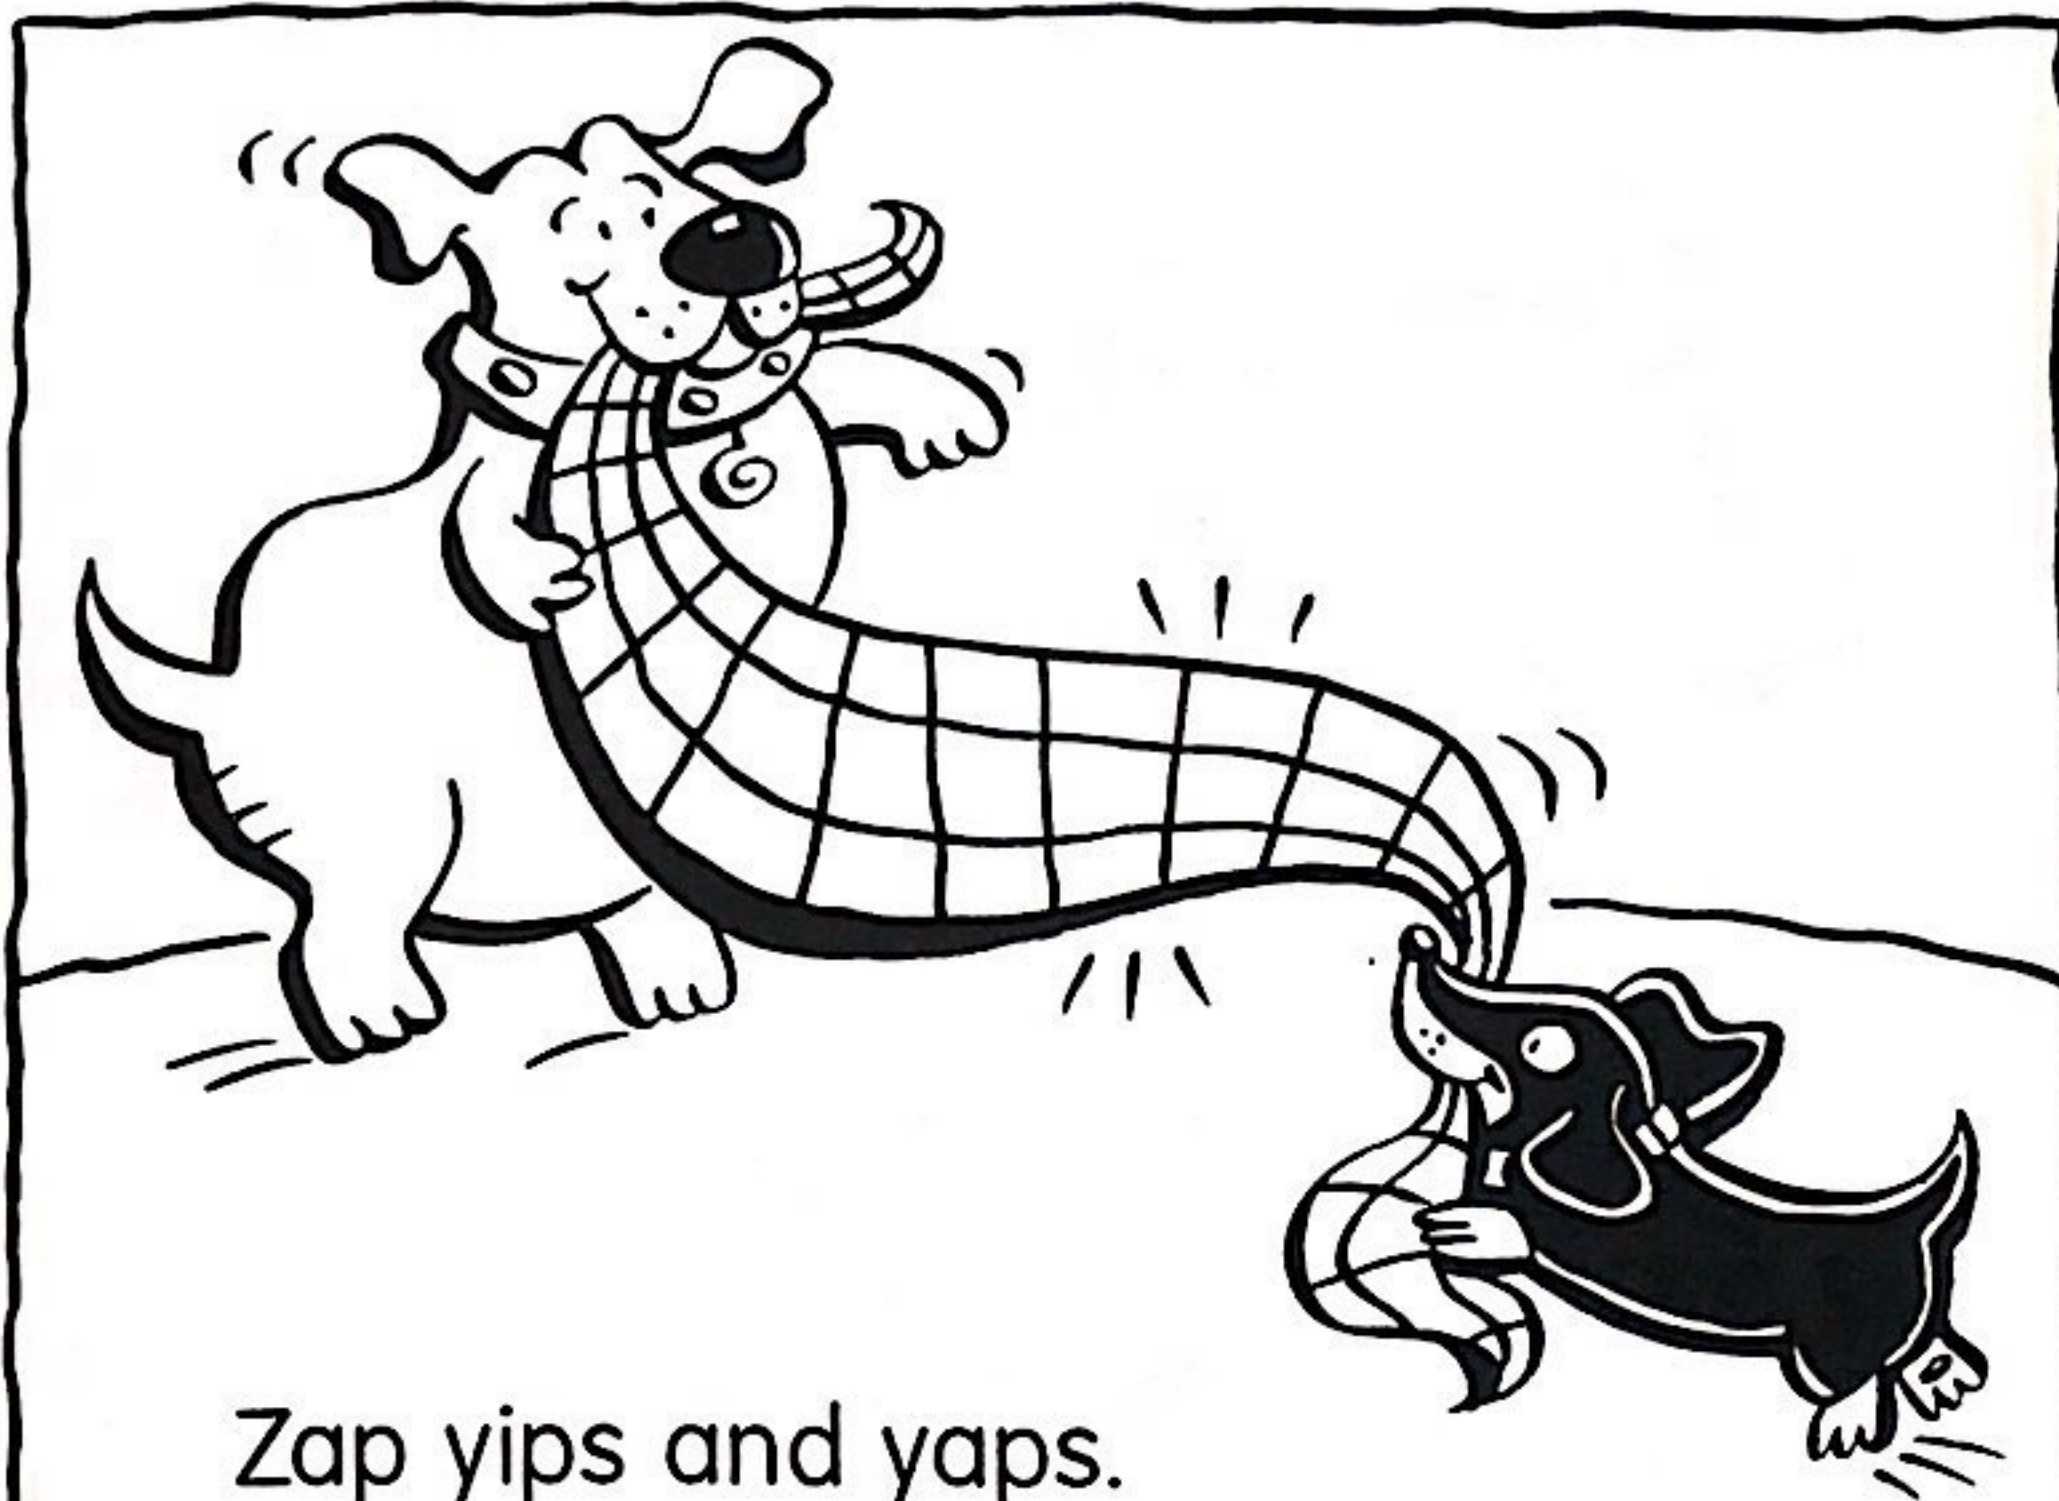

Zap jumps up and sees Zip.
He yips at Zip.
The two dogs go to get a drink.

Zip and Zap see some rags.
Zip gets a big rag and runs.
Zap runs after Zip.

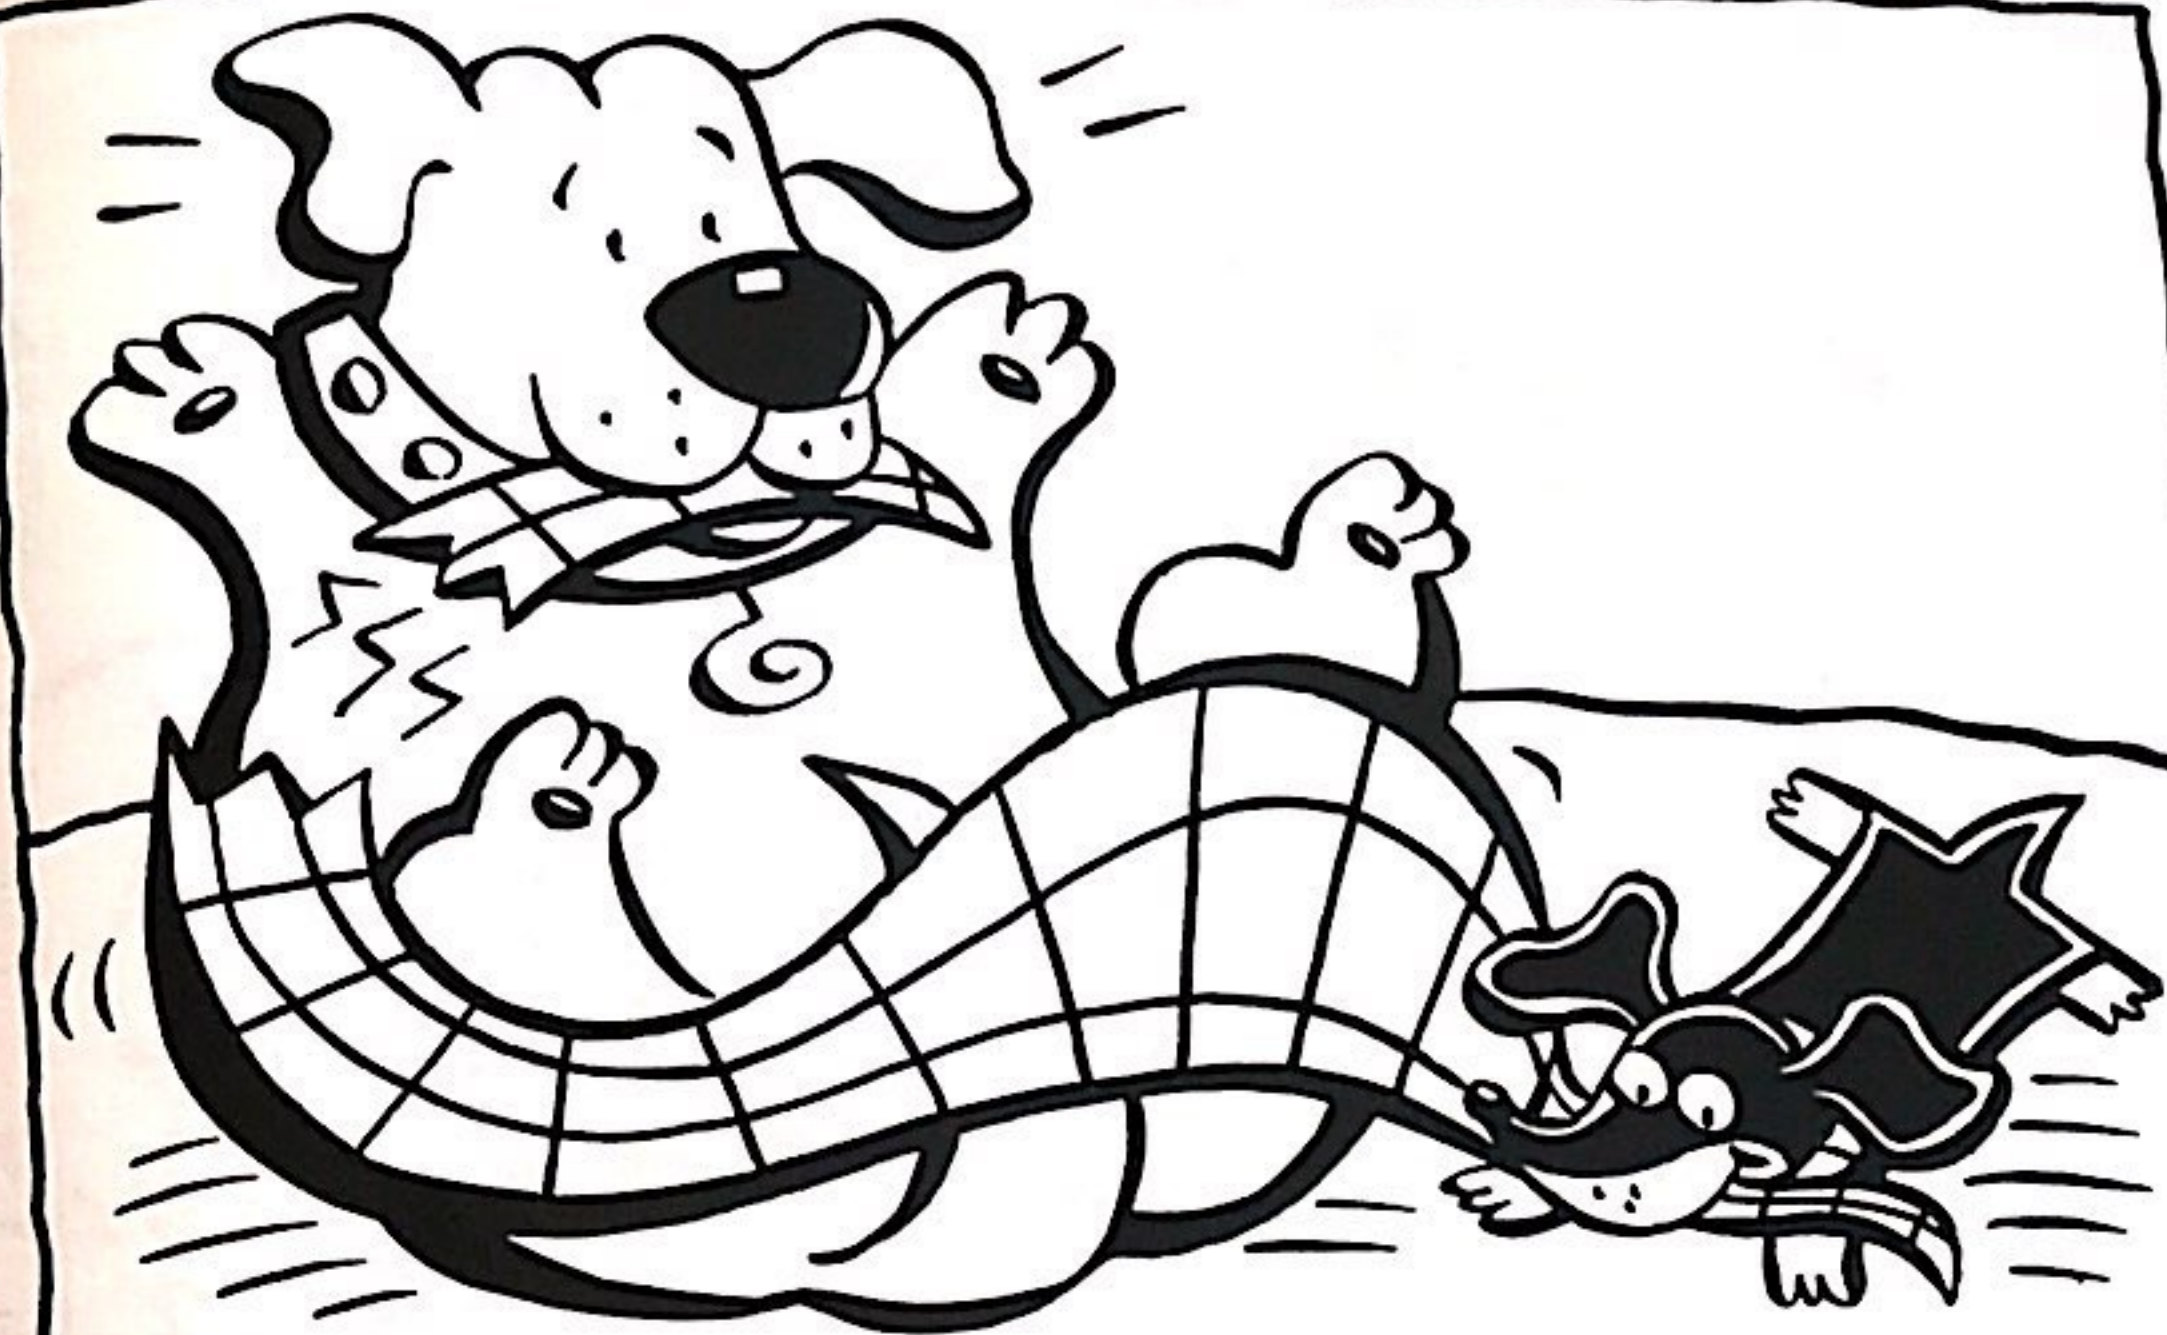

Zap yips and yaps.
Then he gets the end of the rag.
The two dogs pull on it.

Zap tugs.

Zip tugs.

They run and tug on the rag.

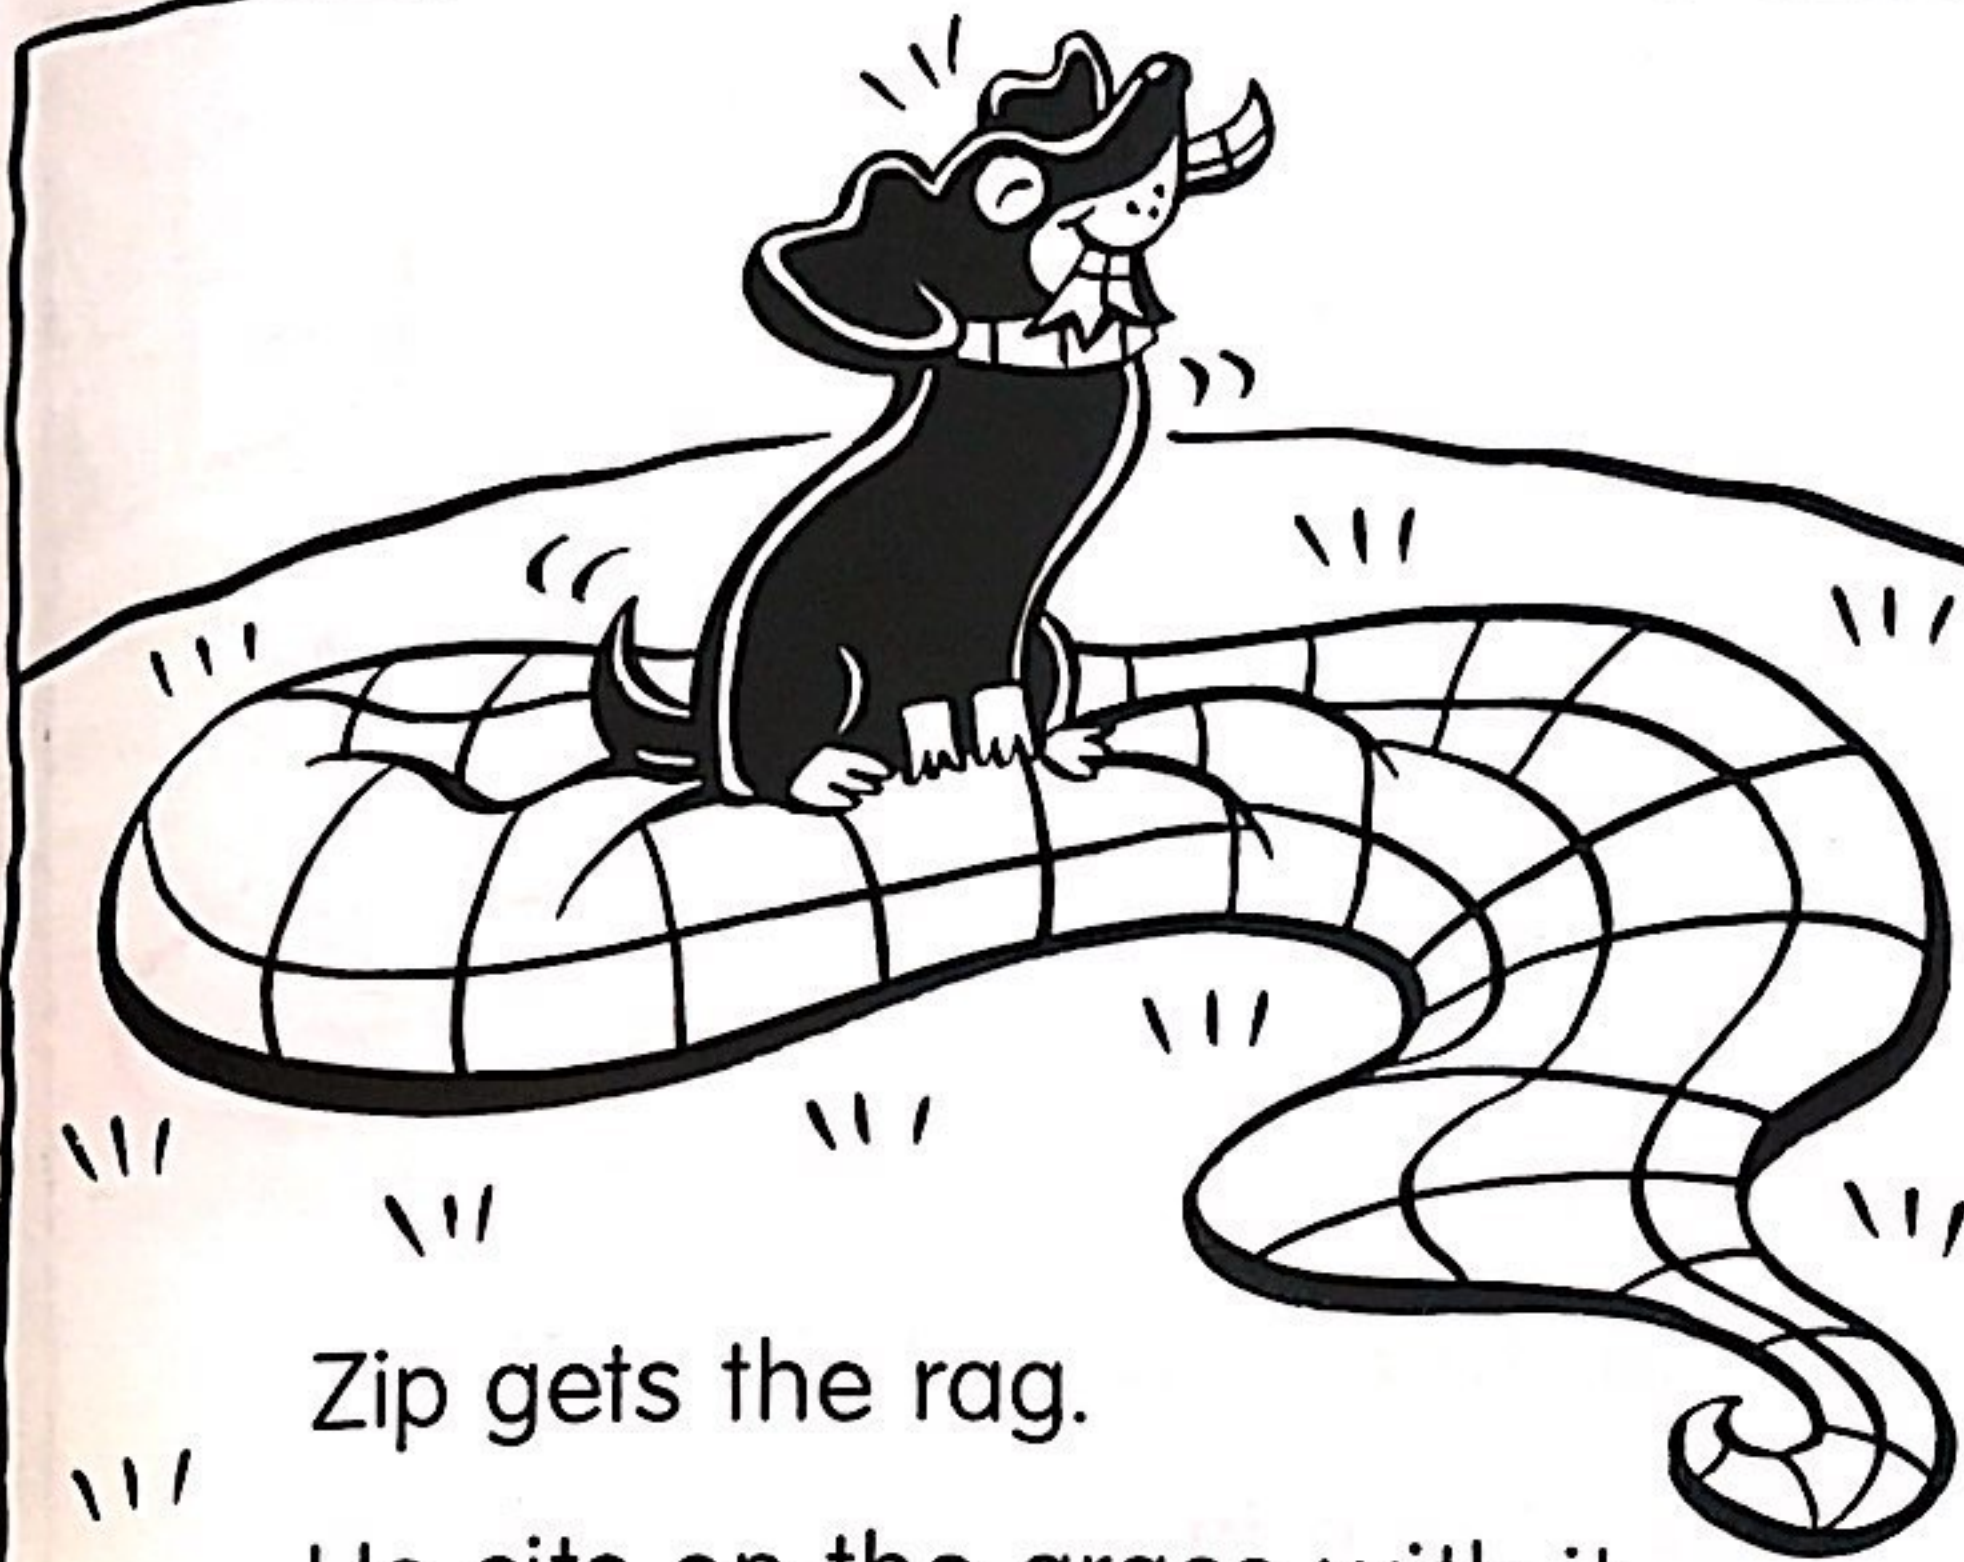

The rag rips. The dogs go down.

Zap has a little rag.

Zip has a big rag.

Zip runs with his rag.
Zip runs after him.
Zip is little and can run fast.

Zip gets the rag.
He sits on the grass with it.
He has to rest his little legs.

Then the dogs run to a pond.
They jump in.
They like to swim.

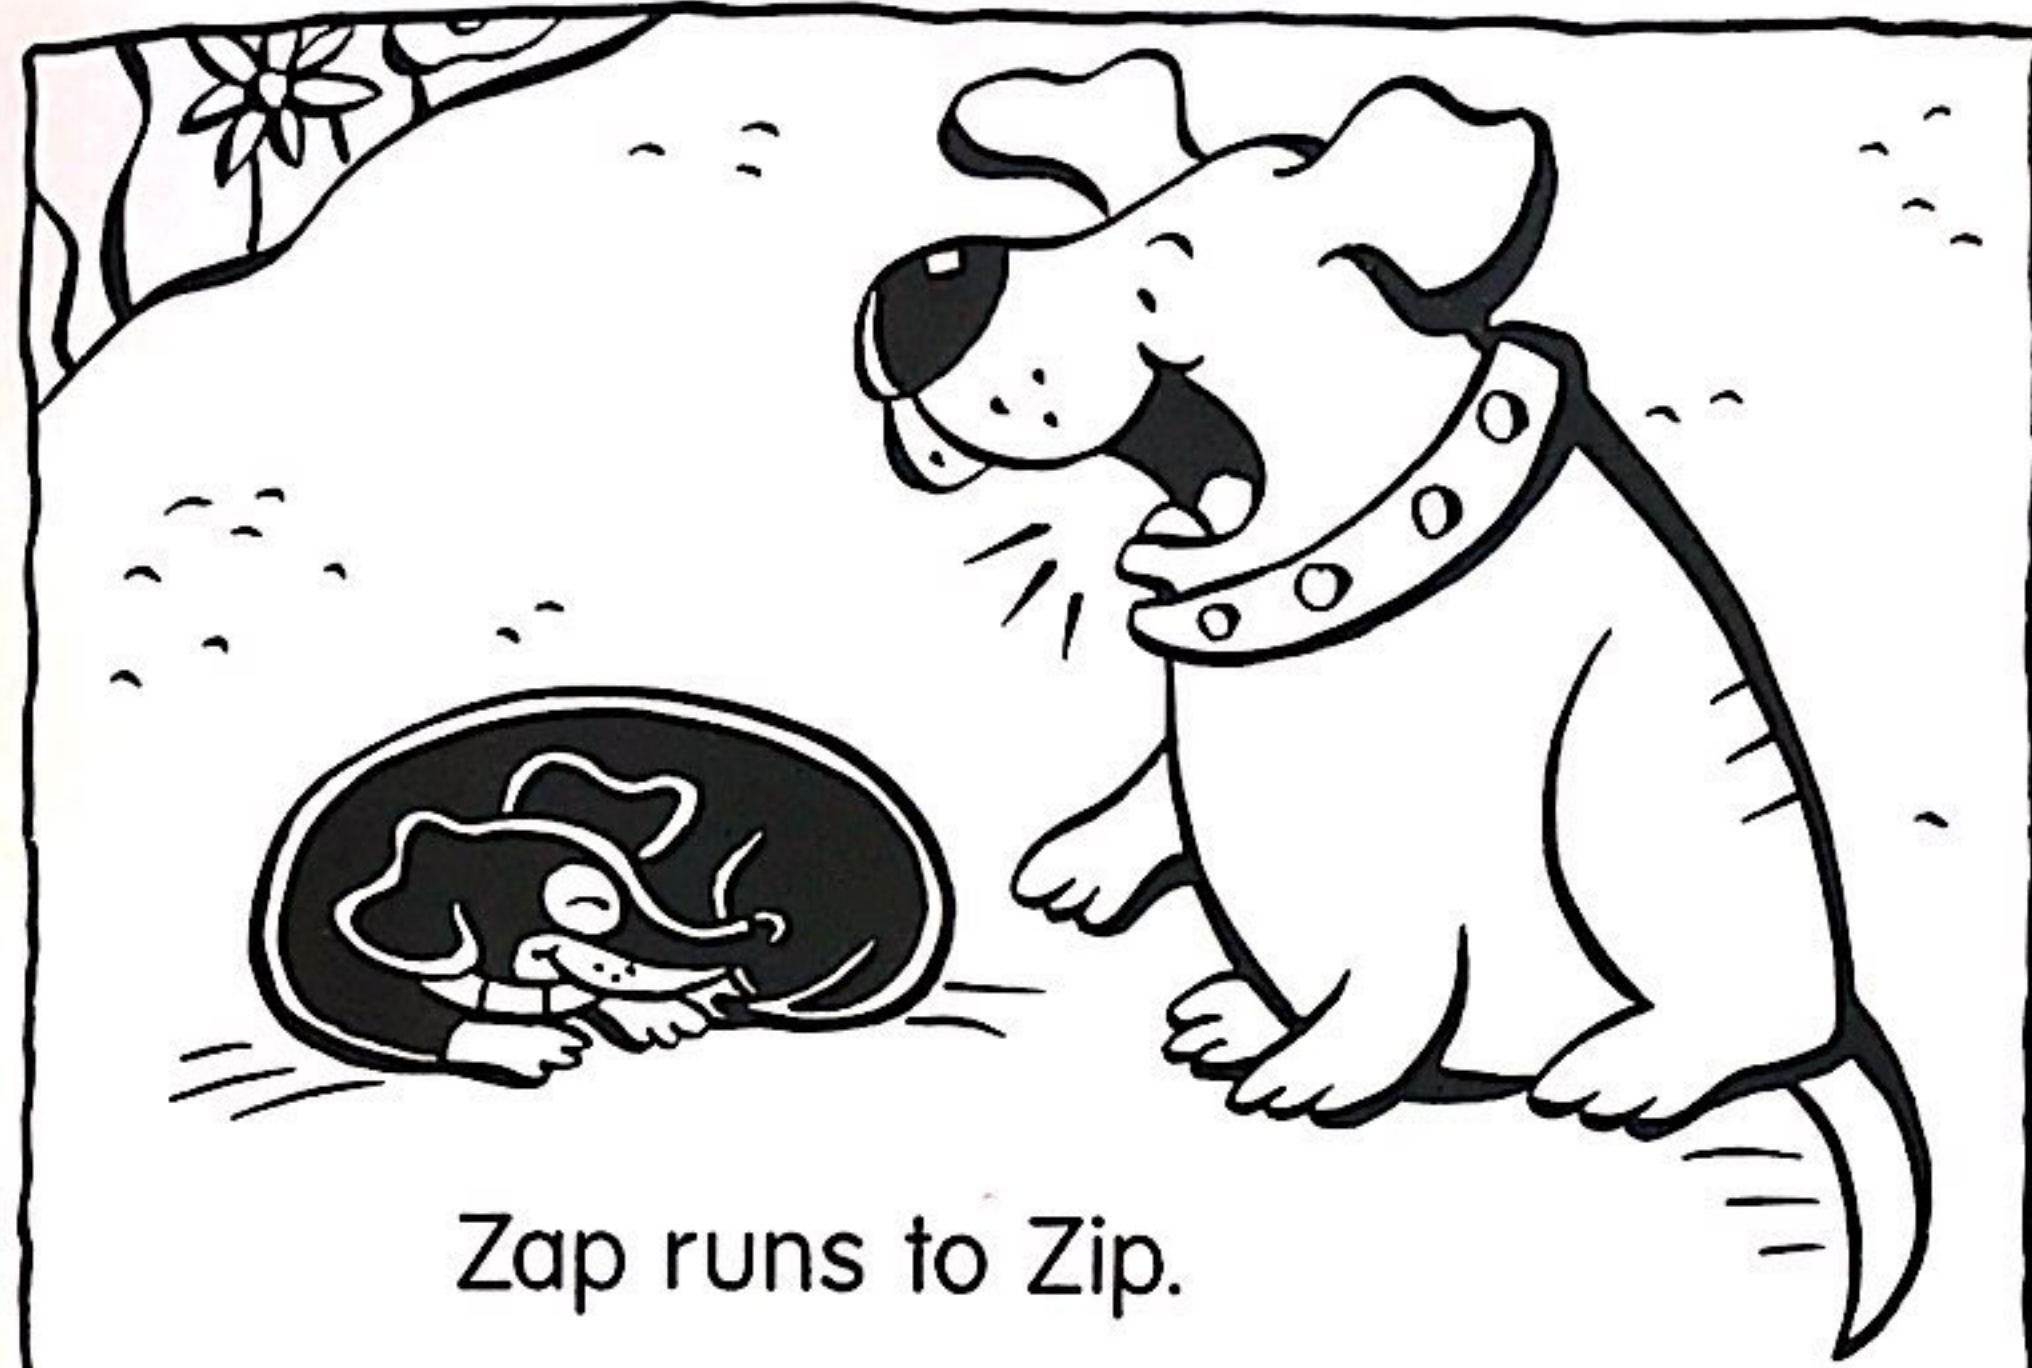

Zip swims with Zap.
They swim up and back.
Then Zip has to rest.

Copyright © 1997 Scholastic Inc.

Zip swims to the land.
He sits on the hot sand.
Zip naps.

Zap runs to Zip.
He sits and yips at him.
Zip naps. Zap yaps.
Yip! Yap! Yip!

My Words

*drink	end	is	pond	swims
*pull	fast	it	rag	then
and	get	jump	rest	tug
at	gets	jumps	rips	tugs
back	grass	land	runs	up
bed	has	legs	sand	with
big	him	licks	sits	Zap
but	his	naps	still	Zap's
can	hot	not	sun	Zip
dogs	in	on	swim

Yy

yap	yes	yip
yaps	yet	yips

new high frequency words